

Master of Studies in Law

FORDHAM LAW | NEW YORK CITY

CONVENIENT AND FLEXIBLE PROGRAM

A master's degree for non-lawyers in today's hottest fields!

Finish your master's degree in just two semesters of full-time study or as few as three semesters of part-time study.

M.S.L. students in Corporate Compliance may begin in August or January. M.S.L. students in Fashion Law may begin their program in August.

OUTSTANDING AND ACCESSIBLE FACULTY AND STAFF

The Fordham Law faculty features some of the country's most prominent legal scholars who are also highly committed to teaching and mentoring. Adjunct faculty members are among New York City's leading practitioners, government officials, and industry executives.

Corporate Compliance students have access to the renowned Fordham Corporate Law Center; Fashion Law students have the opportunity to work with the well-connected Fashion Law faculty and the Fashion Law Institute.

M.S.L. students receive individualized attention from a devoted and caring staff.

PURSUE IN-DEPTH SPECIALIZED STUDY IN YOUR CHOSEN FIELD

Students choose from a range of specialized courses in their field of study and take courses alongside J.D. and LL.M. colleagues.

M.S.L. studies culminate in a capstone project or research paper in which students work under close faculty supervision to explore a topic of interest in-depth.
